

Expression of Interest Form for Workshop Presenters

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

While Foster Care Queensland represents more than 5,300 Foster and Kinship Carers in Queensland, this conference represents all State and Territory Foster and Kinship Carers throughout Australia which combined, totals more than 25,000 families caring for approximately 47,000 children in the care of all States and Territories.

The purpose of the conference is to bring together like minded people including carers, government and non-government staff and others interested to share their experiences, participate in professional development, network and have fun.

In hosting the 2018 National Foster and Kinship Care Conference we aim to draw attention to the specific needs of our carer community and the children they care for and to simply

Make it Happen • Make it Matter

WORKSHOPS

We are looking for workshops that aim to provide a creative, interactive and enjoyable learning forum. Presenters should consider the target group of professionals, foster & kinship carers and other industry professionals. In considering your application, please provide information on how the presentation is relevant to a national audience, and take into consideration that organisation specific information may not be relevant on a broader level.

Workshop sessions available:

Saturday & Sunday morning, and Saturday afternoon – all sessions will run for 90 minutes.

Specific preferences may not be able to be accommodated, however if this will impact on delivery of the workshop please include comments in your submission for consideration during the approval process.

CRITICAL DATES

Closing Date: 16th March 2018 | Selection Date: 30th March 2018
